The
APRIL HOROWITZ
Story

Dear Friends,

I have always loved horses. As a child, I wanted to grow up and be a Cowgirl. Living near Miami Beach this was not too practical, but my parents took me to ride at the local ranches hidden among the Florida orange groves... now the sprawling suburbs of Miami-Ft. Lauderdale. I have enjoyed horseback rides in the cool mountains of Yosemite and the parched scenic canyons of Palm Desert, where I rode with Rifleman Chuck Connors and Sonny Bono as Grand Marshals in the Rodeo Parade.

We owe a lot to the horse. What other animal lets us saddle them, bit in mouth, and follow our lead? Horses in motion are beautiful. What could be more exciting than seeing horses run at a full gallop to win a race?

I was shocked when I discovered the plight of the American horse today... so many are being abandoned and neglected to the point of starvation. April Horowitz decided to be their voice. She is a dynamo who has a beautiful spirit and is a Champion for horses in need. Her story is a mix of Star glamour and horse rescue adventures. This issue will help support April's Heart of the Horse Foundation which feeds and cares for abandoned and rescued horses. We urge you to support Heart of a Horse, and to read more fascinating stories on www.heartofahorse.org.

As for Clientele, we continue to love helping our "clientele" to look and feel their best. In this issue we want to give you a chance to try our breakthrough Peptide Hydration Cream, with new Rigin Peptide technology... the youth peptide that acts like DHEA, keeping us firm, trim and young... wait until you try it! Your skin will take on a radiant glow overnight!

We thank you for your patronage and ask you to pass this issue on to your friends when they tell you how beautiful your skin looks!

Health and Blessings,

Pat Riley

Sunscreen Is Your Best Anti-Aging Product

While most of us know wearing sunscreen reduces the risk of skin cancer, did you know that broad spectrum sunscreens also help block the aging effects of the sun's damaging rays?

"The sun impacts collagen production in the skin, and without healthy collagen, skin won't naturally maintain that plump, moist, youthful, wrinkle-free look," says Michael Greer, M.D. "Too much sun exposure," he says, "and skin will wrinkle long before its time. However, wearing a sunscreen like Clientele's Age Blocker SPF 25 will help protect the skin so it stays younger looking."

Dr. Greer

Without the protection of sunscreen, just a few minutes of daily sun exposure over the years can cause noticeable changes in how skin looks and feels, according to the American Academy of Dermatology. Not only will you see more wrinkles and fine lines, but also more freckles, age spots, and spider veins. Skin itself can look rough and leathery or loose and slack - all thanks to the sun.

Sunscreen can protect your skin from these damaging rays, so that even if you do spend time outdoors, your face is less likely to give away your age. Use a UVA/UVB sunscreen every day before putting on makeup. It should go on last, after creams or serums have been absorbed - even if the sun's not shining! Then, for touch-ups, use a lightweight mineral powder like Clientele Perfect Coverage to add extra protection during the day.

Beauty Inside and Out.

Daily Nutrient Supplements - Newly updated formula based on late-breaking studies, the Morning Nutrients formula now contains higher levels of key ingredients which have been shown to provide greater benefits to women, such as:

Vitamin A (from fish oil, retinyl palmitate and beta carotene) - Helps support immunity and vision, and keeps skin cells healthy.

Lutein & Zeaxanthin - Two powerful carotenoids for your heart, eyes and skin's defenses against environmental damage!

Lycopene - Supports skin, breast, and heart health.

Natural Vitamin E - Supports immunity and great skin.

Magnesium - Over 100 metabolic reactions in your body including those that convert food to energy require this mineral.

Calcium - Nourish your bones and smile with 1070 mg of Calcium each day.

Vitamin D - Over 800 IU of Vitamin D3 supports brain, breast, gastric, immune and overall good health.

Get the key nutrients you need for good health and great looks. Enjoy cutting-edge antioxidants to protect your skin from free radical damage caused by exposure to the environment, sunlight, smoking, and your natural metabolism. Increase your defenses against the effects of aging, with Clientele Daily Nutrients.

The APRIL HOR

by Pat Riley

When I heard about April, I instantly wanted to know more about her. This beautiful woman was taking time out of her life to rescue starving, neglected and abandoned horses that would die without her help.

April Horowitz first started the Heart of a Horse when she became friendly with a neighbor's horse and realized it was being neglected to death. She loved horses and knew something had to be done. She established Heart of A Horse to rescue horses that are starving, abandoned, sold for slaughter, or in need of medical care.

Thanks to April, in the last 3 years, her organization has saved over 484 horses - an amazing feat. She is constantly on the run. I caught up with April shortly after the Kentucky Derby. At this most prestigious race, you see horses at their best... impeccably groomed, trained, and nurtured with the utmost care. The horses look like a million and just may earn a few for their owners.

With so many beautiful race horses, it was hard to imagine the ugly side of horse neglect that is going on in America. Senator Fred Thompson and his wife were on hand to support April's mission to bring awareness to the need for Heart of a Horse. April was touched by a "Make A Wish" child whose dream was to see the splendor of the horses at the Kentucky Derby before she died. April said, "this little girl was so happy to be with the horses. What meant the world to her, means nothing to some horse owners who don't care what happens to their horses when they are no longer useful."

April is a dynamo... a Hero to horses in need. Her good work spreads across the USA and in her own city. She is constantly on the look-out for horses in need. One day she had a feeling a horse was being mistreated on a nearby ranch. She u-turned on the highway, marched right past an angry ranch owner and found a horse barely alive lying on the floor of the barn. "Horses suffer quietly. It was shocking," said April. "You would never know this respected man could be so cruel to his animal," she added.

OWITZ Story

April finds a kindred spirit with the horses she protects. She explained, "Horses need food, vaccines, hoof care, and medicines when they are ill, but with today's economy, it's not unusual for horses to be considered an unnecessary expense. We see horses left behind or neglected to the point of starvation."

"I always assumed when a racehorse retires, he is put 'out to pasture.' I was surprised to learn that this is not always true. Some horses are sold at auction and end up in the slaughter house."

April recalled the phone call she received one day asking her to please save a horse in a kill pen in Pennsylvania waiting to be shipped for slaughter. April said, "Yes." When the horse arrived, she was surprised that after all the horse had been through, she still had a trusting gentle spirit. Because of her beauty she was named "Cover Girl". It turned out she was a Thoroughbred from a bloodline of champions.

The story has a twist. One day Ken Arnold was driving... he stopped to let his dog out to run in a field. The dog ran to the side of a horse in obvious distress standing next to her dying baby.

Ken called a Veterinarian to help the foal. The owner was grateful and said pick any of the foals you want for yourself. Ken picked the sick one. "Why are you spending this money and effort on a horse that is dying?" the man asked Ken. "There was something about this little foal and its mother Cover Girl," Ken answered. "I'm not much of a horseman, but when I met this little foal and its mother, I knew that I had met two of the sweetest big-hearted creatures," he said. Ken went away on a business trip, and when he returned he learned the owner came upon some hard times and sold all his 60 horses at auction, including Cover Girl. Most went to the slaughter house.

Ken was relieved when he learned that Cover Girl had been rescued by Heart of a Horse. He could hardly believe it! Ken Arnold's kindness was rewarded. Cover Girl's baby grew into a champion race horse, known as Ten Generals! April was so happy the day she joined Ken to watch this beautiful horse run in Del Mar.

Today Cover Girl is living happily, serving as a spokesmodel for Heart of a Horse. She has been adopted by celebrity Alan and Tanya Thicke, who are avid supporters of the organization.

April said, "I feel so blessed to have so many wonderful celebrities helping our cause, like Robert Duvall, Selma Blair, Senator Fred Thompson, Pat Boone, Bo Derek, Robert Davi and many more.

Cover Girl with her New Family, Alan, Carter and Tanya Thicke

"I like to think we bring a little of heaven to Earth." said April. "We see the good side of the human spirit – people across the country rescuing horses with us, giving them shelter and care, often with little or no funds. We work with these dedicated groups to save horses and bring awareness to the public."

"What's next for you April?", I said. She answered, "I just learned about 200 horses that are starving and need immediate food and care. I have to find a way to help them!" Her mission 24/7 is to help her 4 legged friends. Clearly her heart is with the hearts of the horses.

Defy Aging with Gravity Control System

What It Does :

- Look 4 years younger in 14 days!
- A cosmetic system that firms and lifts the skin's appearance
- Stimulates circulation within the skin
- Increases cell turnover for a fresh look
- Improves the appearance of sagging skin and resistance to gravity
- Improves firmness and elasticity

2 Week Clinical Tests Showed :

- Skin appeared 4 years younger via Global Age Assessment
- 53% increase in skin luminosity via Minolta Chromameter
- 37% reduction in the appearance of lines and wrinkles via clinical grading
- 36% increase in skin moisturization using the Nova Impedance meter
- 29% reduction in lines & wrinkles
- Increases in skin firmness

During the Clinical Study,

Subjects Noted :

- 97% reported an increase in radiance and luminosity, enhanced skin tone and clarity, more hydrated skin, reduced unevenness, and smoother skin texture
- 93% reported a decrease in the appearance, number and depth of lines & wrinkles, less visible wrinkles, and firmer looking skin
- 90% reported an increase in elasticity
- 87% noted more tightened skin and a reduced look of pores

How it Works :

- Skin layers absorb the LED (Photon) light waves which causes increased cellular activity (680 nm wavelength)
- As cellular activity increases, collagen is stimulated and regeneration occurs
- Gentle, non-invasive, low-current vibration massage tones and firms the skin
